

Intervention Institute: Level I

Audience: Classroom teachers, special education teachers, Title I teachers, reading teachers, literacy coaches, and administrators

Enrollment: 20–75 participants

Developed by reading scholar Dr. J. David Cooper, this highly interactive two-day institute prepares you for the challenges of teaching the research-based intervention in Soar to Success. With role-playing scenarios, active learning techniques, discussions, and coaching and feedback, this institute will help you to make the most of the reading intervention time in your classroom. This training will show you how to

- ~ Teach intervention lessons using Soar to Success
- ~ Provide scaffolded support for students
- ~ Apply reciprocal teaching strategies
- ~ Support comprehension with graphic organizers
- ~ Conduct ongoing assessments and coaching during lessons
- ~ Select students for and release them from the program
- ~ Develop a powerful plan for coaching
- ~ Maintain staff development.

Upon successful completion of this institute, you are eligible to teach Soar to Success in your classroom, coach other teachers, and coordinate the intervention activities in your school or district.

Note: Additional follow-up training and support can be scheduled through Houghton Mifflin Professional Development. See page 22 for more information.
