

LETRS Seminar: Comprehension

Audience: K–6 teachers, special education teachers, Title I teachers, reading teachers, literacy coaches, and administrators

Enrollment: 20–50 participants from grades K–2 or 3–6

This two-day course gives you the understanding you need to provide the most effective, research-based comprehension instruction using Houghton Mifflin Reading. It helps you to

- ~ Realize the major factors that influence comprehension
- ~ Understand how the text itself can determine a reader's ability to comprehend
- ~ Explore the challenge of academic language
- ~ Become familiar with the techniques for teaching sentence and text structure
- ~ Differentiate among the instructional strategies that are most useful before, during, and after reading
- ~ Explore the comprehension lessons in Houghton Mifflin Reading
- ~ Participate in practice activities for teaching the comprehension lessons.
