

“The Reading Workshop was by far one of the best, most intensive, practical trainings that I have attended. I feel ready to go back to the classroom and implement the program immediately.”

– Susan McDonald
Rialto Unified School District

SB 472 40-Hour Course for Educators

Audience: K–6 teachers, reading coaches, administrators, and supervisors

Length of Training: 5 days

Materials: Training books

Enrollment: 15–35 participants per grade level

Description

Optimize your Houghton Mifflin Reading instruction in this intensive, grade-specific, five-day training delivered by an experienced teacher-trainer. With modeled lessons, trainer support, practice, group discussions, and planning, you will learn how to deliver the very best instruction for your students.

Objectives

This training systematically helps you to:

- ~ Become familiar with the current, confirmed research on best teaching practices
- ~ Understand how the California Language Arts Standards and the Reading and Language Arts Framework for California Public Schools, K–12, inform the program
- ~ Review the organization and components of Houghton Mifflin Reading
- ~ Identify the instructional support in the program, with an emphasis on the four Universal Access Handbooks: Extra Support, English Language Learners, Challenge, and Classroom Management.
